INTRODUCTION

We are blessed to share our planet with so many amazing creatures. Animals, birds, insects, fish and reptiles weave the rich tapestry of our experience here. An important part of our curriculum for ascension is that we understand and respect all of them.

Like us they originate from different stars, planets and universes. Like us they all have a soul purpose and a service mission. And they, too, are here to experience life on a physical plane: to manage a body, to touch, to feel, to learn and to teach.

You never meet another creature, or see one on television or in a book, by chance. They come to us to show us something. They do this by mirroring our behaviour or by demonstrating ascension qualities like joy or devotion, or by imparting information telepathically.

Any spirit that incarnates is allocated an angel. So, just like humans, all creatures of the bird, animal and fish kingdoms are guided by the angelic realms. They each have two guardian angels to protect and oversee them. Most reptiles are looked after by elementals.

Archangel Phelyai overlights the animals, and you can always ask him to help one that is in need. In addition, most animals connect directly with other Archangels who instruct them with their special colour rays. Archangel Joules oversees all the fish, although highly evolved species such as dolphins link with particular Archangels.

All birds are in the care of Archangel Bhokpi, who has arrived from another universe to help them ascend into the new Golden Age. Archangel Preminilek takes care of all the insects, including the fifth-dimensional ones.

Introduction

No creature is ever alone, for all are carefully guided and assisted on their soul journey.

When you pick a card from your Archangel Animal Oracle deck, open yourself to receive its message. It may change your day or even transform your life!

HOW TO USE YOUR ARCHANGEL ANIMAL ORACLE CARDS

These cards will help you to attune with the amazing animals we share our world with. They will also offer you guidance about your daily life, your soul mission, your ascension path and how you can serve the planet. Simply pick one and attune to its energy, or use of the following card spreads for guidance.

One-card Oracle

- I. If you have a specific question, mentally ask it; otherwise ask for general guidance.

2. Shuffle the cards, then spread them out.
3. Pick a card with your non-dominant hand.
4. Look at the card and notice what jumps out.
How does its message resonate with you?
What do the colours, symbols and energy of the animal say to you?
5. You can read the card interpretation in this guidebook for more information if you wish to.
6. Sit quietly and ask for more guidance. Take the first things that come to you.
7. Thank the animal.
8. During the day, more guidance, information or downloads may drop into your mind.

Three-card Spread

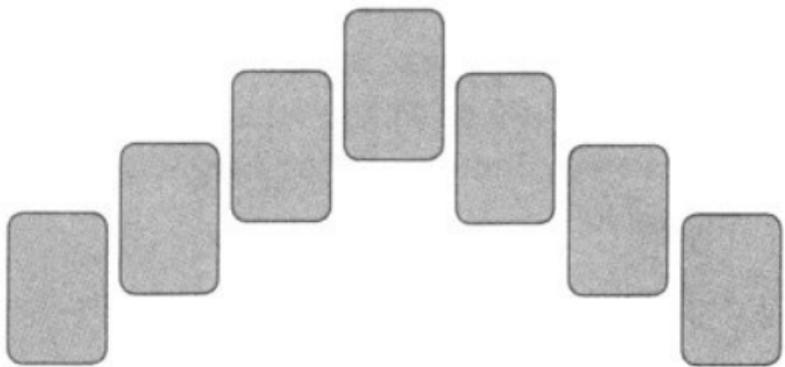

1. If you have a specific question, mentally ask it. If you don't have a question, ask for general guidance.
2. Shuffle the cards, then spread them out.
3. Pick three cards with your non-dominant hand.
4. Place them in front of you, from left to right. The one on the left represents the past or the situation that has led up to the current moment. The one in the middle represents the present. The one on the right represents the future or the likely outcome.
5. Examine the cards and notice what jumps out at you. How do the messages of the cards resonate with you? What do the colours, symbols and energy of the animals say to you? You can read the card interpretations in this guidebook for more information if you wish to.

6. Sit quietly and ask for more guidance. Take the first things that come to you.
7. Thank the animals.
8. During the day more guidance, information or downloads may drop into your mind.

Seven-card Spread

This is a more detailed spread.

1. If you have a specific question, mentally ask it. If you don't have a question, ask for general guidance.
2. Shuffle the cards, then spread them out.
3. Pick seven cards with your non-dominant hand.
4. Place them in front of you. The ones on the left represent the past or the situation that has led up to the current moment. The central one represents the present. The ones on the right represent the future or the likely outcome.
5. Examine the cards and notice what jumps out at you. What do the messages of the cards and the colours, symbols and energy of the animals say to you? A story may be unfolding.
6. You can read the card interpretations in this guidebook for more information if you wish to.
7. Sit quietly and ask for more guidance. Take the first things that come to you.

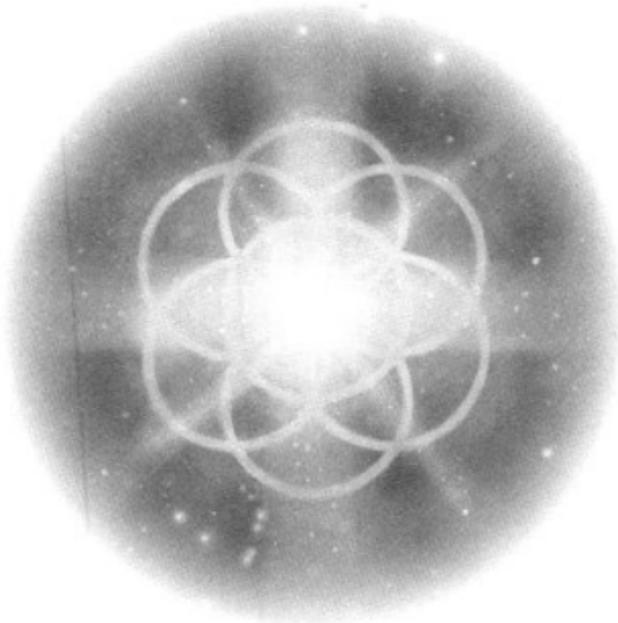

8. Thank the animals.
9. During the day more guidance, information or downloads may drop into your mind.

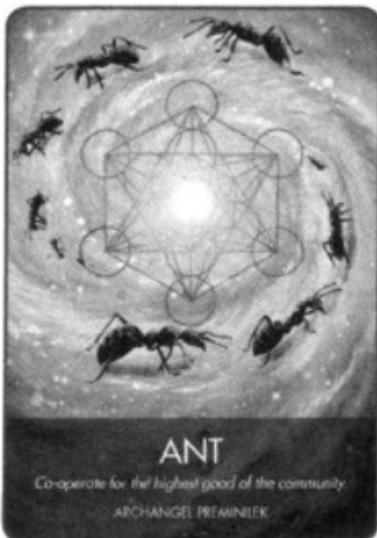

I hope you love using these cards as much as I have enjoyed creating them with our animal friends.

Remember, these amazing creatures really love you and are waiting to help you.

INTERPRETATIONS OF THE CARDS

ANT

Co-operate for the highest good of the community.

ARCHANGEL PREMINILEK

ANT

Co-operate for the highest good of the community.

ARCHANGEL PREMINILEK

About Ants

Ants are tiny but brave little warriors who always work together for the benefit of their community. They are fifth-dimensional, from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius, and understand sacred geometry. They build their nests with love according to its principles, so that the structures emit beautiful harmonics. This attracts angels to sing over them and draws many creatures and elementals to their nests to bathe in angel light.

They serve with humility by aerating the soil and decomposing organic matter.

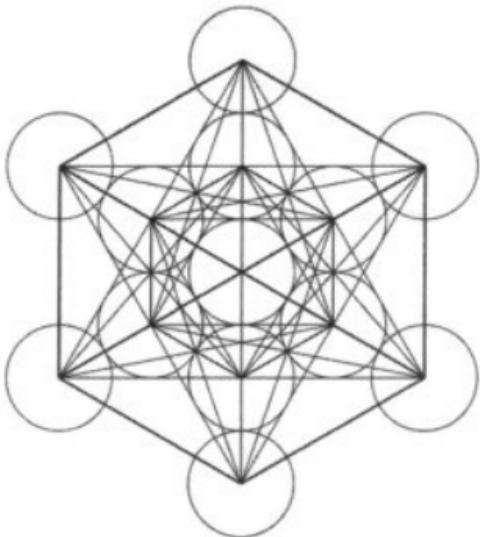

They are experiencing and teaching about structured family life and how to live and thrive collectively through co-operating and sharing. They devote themselves to their duty with hard work and intention.

Guidance

The message of the Ant card is to devote yourself to making your home welcoming and harmonious, while at the same time acting to bring your community together. You can take small steps like picking up litter or smiling at your neighbours. Or aim higher and actively offer yourself in service.

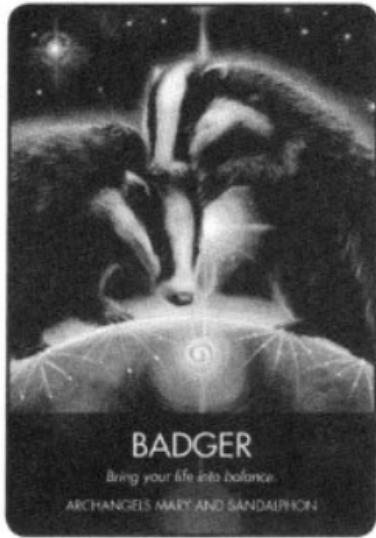

The ants carry the key to Sirius, which is to understand the Universal Metatron Cube (see opposite). Look at it and absorb its energy. This is a fundamental tool to open your consciousness to the power of sacred geometry. The patterns act as codes that start to balance you and bring you into alignment with your soul blueprint. The angels will begin to sing, pouring their beautiful sonics over you. This will attract higher energies and people towards you.

The Universal Metatron Cube

BADGER

Bring your life into balance.

ARCHANGELS MARY AND SANDALPHON

About Badgers

Badgers originate from Sirius. They are black and white because at a soul level they want to demonstrate the balance between masculine and feminine. They are also learning and teaching about family life and have well-developed heart centres. Archangel Mary pours pure Source love through their hearts and they pass this into the planet. Co-operating with Archangel Sandalphon, they use this energy to keep the ley lines clear.

Send badgers love and compassion so that they can regain their sense of worth and self-respect. This will strengthen them so that they can recover their health and vitality.

Guidance

When you receive this card, it suggests you need to strengthen your aura by building your confidence and expanding your heart. Invoke the great Archangel Mary and ask her to bathe you in love. Then sit quietly to receive it. Breathe in her energy, then breathe it out around you until you are surrounded by a blue cocoon of high-frequency light. This will help you to deal with any negativity others send towards you.

The badgers also call you to do service work for the planet. Connect to their energy through this card and then link into Archangel Sandalphon, the great silver angel in charge of the Earth Star chakra. Let Archangel Mary's love and light flow through you into the Earth and direct it through the ley lines. Picture them becoming golden and radiant!

The badgers remind you to bring your life into balance. This may be to draw your leisure and work lives into harmony, to share chores in your home or to bring your masculine and feminine energies into equilibrium. Then you can fulfil your purpose with joy.

BAT

See through illusion into truth.

ARCHANGEL DORENKA

BAT

See through illusion into truth.

ARCHANGEL DORENKA

About Bats

Bats originate from another universe and step down through Sirius, where they hone their knowledge about sonics and echo location to fit in with the atmospherics and energy of Earth. Archangel Michael helps them develop their throat chakras to use these skills to navigate and demonstrate how to do things differently. Through their advanced throat centres, they link us into the planet Mercury and its ascended aspect, Telephony, the broadcasting station of our universe. These highly evolved beings hold much cosmic wisdom as well as divine feminine secrets, and their soul mission is to disseminate it on Earth. They remind us that it is possible for mammals to fly.

They are also learning and teaching about sharing responsibility within a community and birthing and caring for babies. This is helping to develop their heart centres in their quest to become fully fifth-dimensional.

Bats are highly sensitive to their surroundings and they work very closely with Archangel Dorenka.

Guidance

Choosing this card suggests you open your heart and pour love into caring for and nurturing those close to you. When you raise the frequency of your heart centre, it enables your throat chakra to expand too. So focus on communicating with love and integrity. Then ask Archangel Michael to help you develop telepathy and your other psychic abilities. Tune in to the bats to download your highest potential and perhaps even the spiritual technology of the future.

Your guidance is also to look at the world with fresh eyes. Perceive everything with wisdom. Listen to your intuition to discover the reasons beyond the obvious. Expand your life and remember there is always a new way to do things.

BEAR

Use power with wisdom.

ARCHANGELS URIEL AND JOPHIEL

About Bears

Bears originate from Orion, the constellation of enlightenment and wisdom. In their auras they carry codes which enable them to influence others for the highest good.

They are learning and demonstrating how to use power correctly. When they are in nature, Archangel Uriel helps them to keep their solar plexus chakras balanced, radiant and confident. The Angels of Peace can then spread their light where it is needed.

Bears are mostly solitary animals, happy when they are free and in their right natural environment.

When they hibernate they are held in the love of Source, while the Masters of Orion feed them with wisdom energy. Archangel Jophiel, the Angel of Wisdom, also shines his crystal yellow light onto them. Within wisdom there is always love. Archangel Jophiel connects the hearts of the bears to the hearts of those who are pure enough to accept this love.

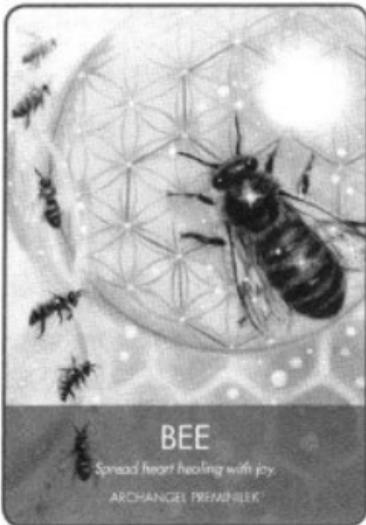

Guidance

The Bear card suggests that you have the wisdom within you that enables you to establish your power and use it correctly. For this, it is important for you to be in an environment where you are happy and free. So examine your world and, if you need to make changes, ask Archangel Uriel to help you. He will strengthen your solar plexus chakra so that you feel confident and strong.

You may need to walk alone while you reclaim your wisdom and worth. If so, use this opportunity to create your own cocoon so that Source light can touch you. Open your crown centre and let Archangel Jophiel pour his crystal yellow light right through you, expanding your heart so that you spread peace and love.

BEE

Spread heart healing with joy.

ARCHANGEL PREMINILEK

About Bees

Bees are fifth-dimensional insects who come from the Pleiades, the wondrous plane of heart healing. Their service work is to be pollinators for Earth and so they are instrumental in the survival of our planet. They travel enormous distances to collect nectar to make honey, and wherever they go they happily pour healing into the land, animals and people. Angels use the vibration of their humming sound to communicate love to those in the vicinity.

Bees' hives are built according to sacred geometry and angels always sing over them to hold the frequency high. Fairies and other elementals gather round the hives to bathe in this angelic light. Pixies, who are earth elementals, lead bees to flowers to ensure that they pollinate as many as they can.

Their soul mission is to teach about sacred geometry and to spread Pleiadian heart healing.

Guidance

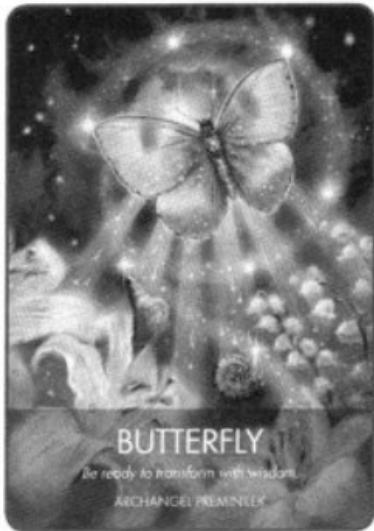

The Bee card reminds you to do everything with joy. When you serve others and the planet with your heart open, an alchemical change takes place both in the giver and the receiver. You become one and thus spread Oneness throughout the universe. Solidarity and togetherness grow in the consciousness of the world.

Bee

So, let your actions be purposeful and allow the higher purpose to work through you and guide you. Then your life flows and the highest good always unfolds for you.

The bees also guide you to remember the power and light conferred by the use of sacred geometry. Use its principles in your home and workplace and the angels will sing over you, bringing light and peace.

Be ready to transform with wisdom.

ARCHANGEL PREMINILEK

About Butterflies

Butterflies originate from Orion, the constellation of wisdom, and are fifth-dimensional insects. They are messengers of the angels and their auras contain Archangel codes which help you connect with those beings of light. If a butterfly flutters near you it may be bringing a message or reminding you how loved you are. Part of their soul mission is to bring joy.

Butterflies go through an incredible metamorphosis from egg to caterpillar to cocoon to butterfly before they spread their wings. Their main soul mission is to demonstrate that change is possible, and so is massive spiritual growth.

Their service work is to pollinate, though to a lesser degree than bees.

Guidance

When you receive the Butterfly card you are advised that it is time for profound transformation. You are ready to emerge from your cocoon. Do not rush this. You need a phase of relaxation and calm before you spread your wings. Use this period for a life review to help you decide what you want to change, and remember that the process is inevitable. You will emerge as a different spiritual person.

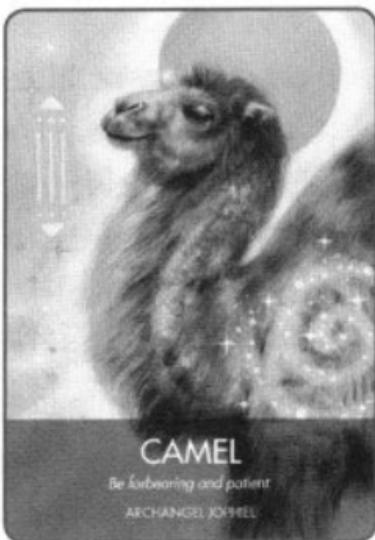

See the world through eyes of expectation and do everything with a new joy and lightness.

Archangel Animal Oracle Cards

Stay in harmony and peace. Remember you are a beloved child of the universe and that wondrous possibilities are becoming available to you. You will be protected and supported as you explore the new.

You are an emissary for the angels, carrying angel light in your energy fields. People will see or sense your inner beauty and respond to you with love and happiness.

CAMEL

Be forbearing and patient.

ARCHANGEL JOPHIEL

CAMEL

Be forbearing and patient.

ARCHANGEL JOPHIEL

About Camels

Camels incarnate from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius. They carry much wisdom and are waiting patiently to share this with humanity. They will download this to us as we become more telepathically receptive and are ready to progress into the new Golden Age.

As camels move from meditative empty deserts to noisy, chaotic towns, they are learning and teaching about balance. They are also transforming lower frequencies into light. Much sacred knowledge from Lakumay is contained in their divine blueprint, and this they pass into the golden, fifth-dimensional ley lines wherever they go. They are helping to maintain the grids for us.

Camels are also demonstrating to us to use resources wisely. They have learned to conserve what they have and use it with discrimination, so that there is enough for everyone.

Guidance

You are blessed to receive this card of wisdom. It suggests you hold golden wisdom in your divine blueprint and that in your life plan you have contracted to share this with humanity.

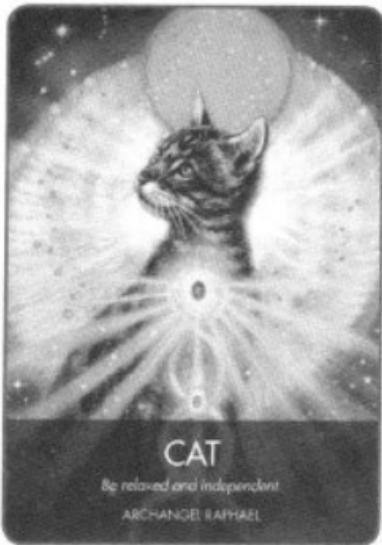

This path calls on you to practise patience, forbearance and humility. You may feel ahead of your time. Many will sense the light you carry and will react to it in different ways, so you will need to stay in balance whatever is happening around you.

If you do not fully recognize who you are, your guidance is to sit quietly, place a golden sparkling light around yourself and call on Archangel Jophiel, the Angel of Wisdom, to help you attune to your true self. Then expect the deep knowing held in your soul to start coming forward.

CAT

Be relaxed and independent.

ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL

About Cats

All felines originate from Orion, the constellation of enlightenment and wisdom, and are highly evolved fifth-dimensional psychic beings. Domestic cats watch over and protect the homes where they live, while big cats are watchers and protectors of the planet. They are all healers.

Cats know how to relax at a deep core level so that they can access pure spiritual guidance and spread this information to humans and animals. They bring qualities of enlightenment to Earth and help to raise the frequency of everyone in their vicinity.

These highly independent animals do not need humans but they have offered to serve and help us on our spiritual journey.

Guidance

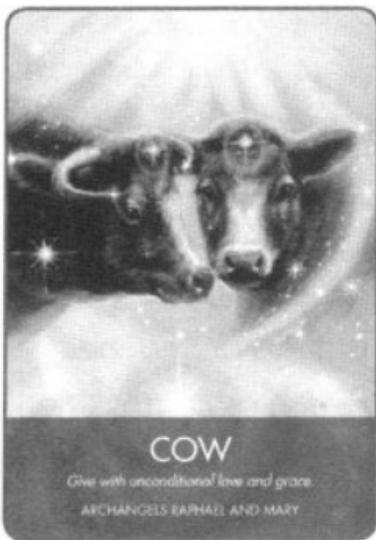

When you receive this card you are reminded that everything you need to know is already within you. Take time to let yourself relax and surrender to the divine in order to access your innate wisdom and knowing. Then be aware you will be raising your frequency as well as that of all those around you.

When you are centred and calm, Archangel Raphael connects with you and your psychic and spiritual awareness develops. You spread peace, love and healing. Being centred in yourself confers protection on you, your home and your loved ones, as the universe watches over you. It also enables the angelic realms to bring you your heart's desire.

You are invited to be courageous and independent today and do what is right for you. Remember that if something is for your highest good, it is for the highest good of those around you, too.

COW

Give with unconditional love and grace.

ARCHANGELS RAPHAEL AND MARY

COW

Give with unconditional love and grace.

ARCHANGELS RAPHAEL AND MARY

About Cows

Cows originate from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius. As fifth-dimensional beings they spread the unconditional love and divine feminine light of the Gold Ray of Christ. While cows are warm, benevolent and nurturing, their partners, the bulls, are strong and protective. Together they offer a perfect balance of grounded feminine and masculine energy.

Cows, with their motherly, giving characters, have for aeons graciously offered us their milk, which was originally, in the golden era of Atlantis, perfectly calibrated to nourish us. Since then, many humans have eaten beef or taken milk without permission or appreciation. Although we have not always looked after them with respect, cows continue to serve us in the expectation that we will treat them with love and gratitude as we raise our frequency in the approach to the new Golden Age.

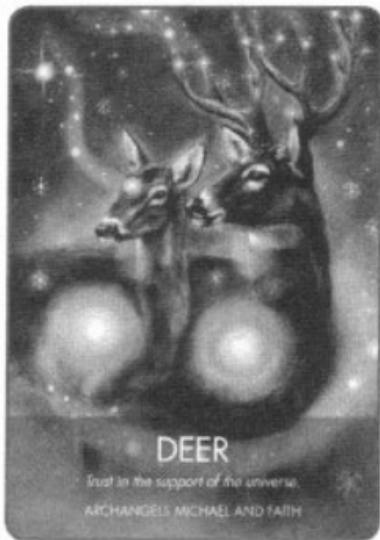

Guidance

When you receive this card you are asked to tune in to the comfortable, motherly, nurturing and stable aspects of your nature, and balance it with the strong, protective energy that is part of you. Your guidance is to centre yourself and come into balance. Make sure you are grounded at all times.

Examine your life and see how you can develop your feminine, giving, caring and benevolent characteristics in a sensible, stable and earthed way. Then stand in your power and demonstrate that you can be true to yourself.

Recognize that you are truly lovable, no matter how others treat you. Know that you are a unique and special being and have compassion for those who have less understanding than you do.

DEER

Trust in the support of the universe.

ARCHANGELS MICHAEL AND FAITH

About Deer

All types of deer have incarnated from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius. They learn and teach about trust.

The gentle, feminine doe has her third eye open and is alert and watchful. The dignified, masculine stag is grounded in his power and his antlers symbolize dominance and supremacy. Stags' antlers grow in the spring representing birth and renewal. They fall off in the autumn, denoting endings or loss.

The mission of a doe's soul is to learn and teach about grace, innocence, trust and family life. That of the stag is to learn and teach about trust in the universe, majesty and self-empowerment, and to experience walking a solitary path. Their service missions are to eat fresh grasses and leaves in order to stimulate new growth.

Guidance

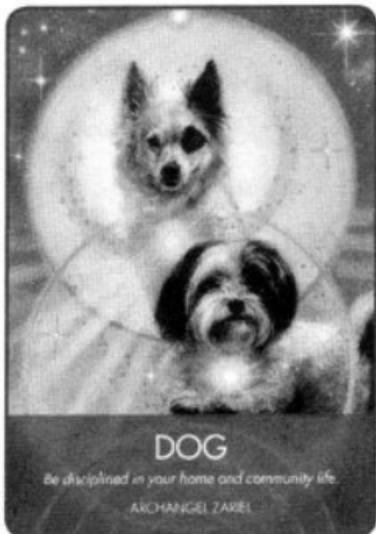

The Deer card is reminding you to trust the universe to look after and support you, to trust your own deepest intuition, then follow its guidance. Deer bring you a message of balance and equilibrium, for you are guided to employ your psychic knowing while maintaining your dignity and divine magnificence.

If you are reading this in the spring, expect a renewal of hopes, confidence and a new direction.

If it is the autumn, there may be endings that will ultimately benefit you, so handle them with grace.

You are asked to look out for and help those weaker than yourself, and Archangel Michael will assist you in this task. He invites you to remember that we are all one and, in helping another, you promote your spiritual growth and ultimately that of the planet.

DOG

Be disciplined in your home and community life.

ARCHANGEL ZARIEL

About Dogs

All canines – wolves, foxes, domestic hounds and others – originate from Sirius where the Gold Ray of Christ is kept. They incarnate to bring this unconditional love energy to Earth and to pass this pure light to other animals and people. Dogs are mainly learning about various forms of family structure.

The spiritual purpose of domestic dogs is to be companions to humans. They have surrendered the familiarity of their own kind to support us. They are giving and receiving love, while learning and teaching about discipline and loyalty.

Foxes are learning the art of adaptability, whereas dingoes and wild dogs are developing independence, resourcefulness, courage and a sense of adventure.

All dogs are loyal to their families and selflessly protective.

Guidance

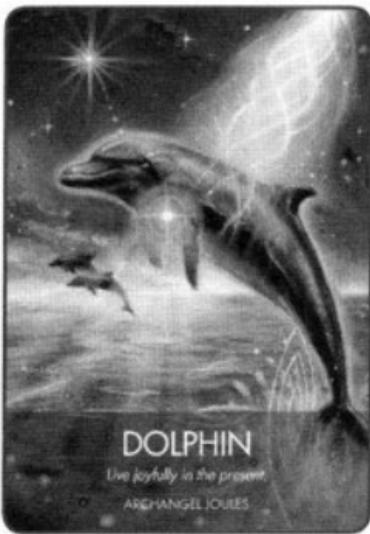

When you receive this card you are invited to look at the structure of your family life and your friendships, including those with work colleagues. Are you loyal to each other? Do you respect each other? Do you all relate to each other for the highest good? Are you disciplined or chaotic in your lifestyle?

Dog

Your family reflects you, so are you loyal to yourself? Do you respect yourself? Do you make choices for your highest good?

You are reminded that spiritual discipline is the foundation for true happiness and joy. It is the keystone of ascension. The Dog card wants you to know that when you consistently practise your spiritual techniques, you can be adaptable, courageous and develop a sense of adventure and fun. Your entire life can expand based on this solid foundation, as self-control confers safety. You can then walk forward in joy and bliss.

DOLPHIN

Live joyfully in the present.

ARCHANGEL JOULES

About Dolphins

Dolphins originate from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius, and carry the keys and codes of the highest-frequency time of Atlantis. Their gift is to pass these into the oceans with joy and lightness, so that anyone swimming can receive them.

Despite being highly evolved, certain Atlanteans who held the sacred crystal technology that powered that continent, caused its downfall. They were given the opportunity to earn redemption by taking dolphin bodies, so they could safely store the technology but not use it. To watch over them, some Angels of Atlantis took dolphin bodies. All this karma ended in 2012.

Now all dolphins are wonderful healers. They raise the frequency of people to enable them to restore their own divine, perfect health blueprints. They also bring through the Gold Ray of Christ at a ninth-dimensional frequency to light up the waters with higher love, and teach echo location.

The importance of dolphins is such that an army of sharks, whales, rays and turtles protect the sacred information they carry.

Guidance

The wisdom of the Dolphin card reminds you that you are a special, highly evolved being.

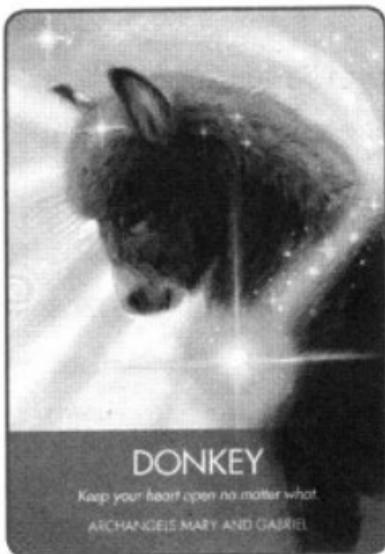

Archangel Animal Oracle Cards

Throughout your long soul journey, you may not have been faultless. No one has, but that is past. You are now a light bearer, carrying sacred geometric keys and codes from this and other universes. Dance and play. Do what makes your heart happy.

Your task is to lighten up and be joyful and gracious as you spread your wisdom. Bring through the Gold Ray of Christ and you will automatically heal others.

Also know that no one is perfect, so keep your heart open with understanding and forgiveness.

DONKEY

Keep your heart open no matter what.

ARCHANGELS MARY AND GABRIEL

DONKEY

Keep your heart open no matter what.

ARCHANGELS MARY AND GABRIEL

About Donkeys

Donkeys come from Sirius, first incarnating as the wild asses who roamed in huge herds in the wild areas of Mesopotamia. Their souls desired to experience freedom, endurance and companionship. Later, when many were captured, domesticated and put to work by humans, they became known as donkeys. They still endure separation from their loved ones, burdensome work and often humiliation, and this life is a challenging initiation for them.

Archangel Mary is with them, helping to keep their hearts open. Archangel Gabriel also encourages and helps them. He will assist you with your tests in life if you connect energetically to a donkey.

Donkeys are the animal representatives of the Brotherhood of the Golden Robe, those who clear planetary karma through their own energy systems to help the world. Your gratitude supports them.

The spiritual hierarchy chose this humble animal to carry the Virgin Mary to Bethlehem in order to acknowledge and reward it.

Guidance

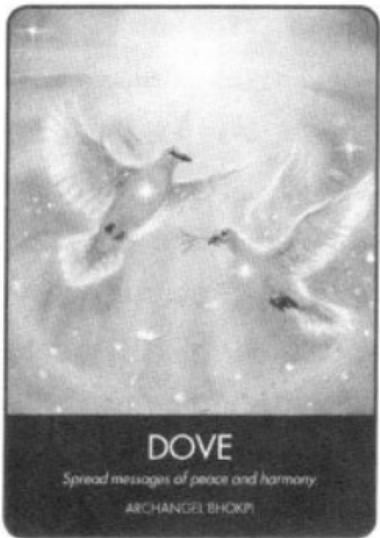

This card indicates that you have been through or are still undergoing some sort of test or initiation. You may feel it has been unfair, but your soul undertook it to advance you to a higher spiritual level. Such challenges help you to develop qualities of patience, forbearance and courage. Accept this. Stay centred, calm and keep your heart open. Use all experiences to strengthen yourself and you will move into a higher spiritual level. Then everything will feel worthwhile, as you will see with enlightened eyes.

When you pass an initiation you are always rewarded, so something much better is coming into your life. When you receive this card, Archangels Mary and Gabriel touch you with love and encouragement.

DOVE

Spread messages of peace and harmony.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

DOVE

Spread messages of peace and harmony.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

About Doves

The Angels of Peace work through doves, and the pure white ones have become a worldwide symbol of peace. Their soul work is to approach humans and animals and bring them messages of love, peace and harmony. They communicate this through their energy fields.

Angels of Peace also work with pigeons, partridges, plovers, grouse, pheasants and ducks, who try to approach people and animals so that they can impart their loving light. These birds also spread peace through flowers, trees and the land itself.

The service work of doves is to peck the ground to prepare it for new seeds to grow. The cooing of doves may sound monotonous to human ears, but it contains keys and codes of peace and harmony to soothe our consciousness and open us up to elevated thoughts and possibilities.

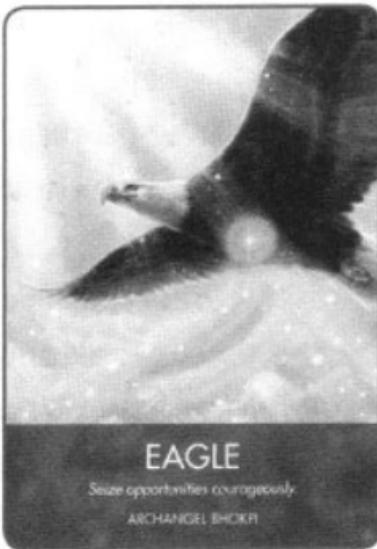

Guidance

Your guidance is to take deep breaths and centre yourself on the outbreath until you feel calm and tranquil. Fill the cells of your body with pure peace. Hold out your hand and imagine a gentle white dove landing on it. Listen to its soft coo, and allow it to open you up to a serene and loving way of being. Let your energy fields glow with peace and harmony.

Think of people and situations in your life that would benefit from your light and visualize them being bathed in it. Plant new seeds of kindness, love, co-operation or whatever is most needed for the highest good. Notice what changes occur.

When your energy fields contain the keys and codes of peace and harmony you become a catalyst for transformation wherever you go.

EAGLE

Seize opportunities courageously.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

EAGLE

Seize opportunities courageously.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

About Eagles

These magnificent birds come from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius, and have ascended into the fifth-dimensional frequency. Therefore, whether they are large or small, they have individualized and are no longer part of a group soul. Eagles soar serenely over the world revealing true mastery of the air, while they spread keys and codes from Lakumay over places where the angels direct them. They teach about the power of serenity and control which reminds us to relax and flow with the currents of life.

Eagles also fly with great courage directly into storms and use the thermals as opportunities to fly higher. These impressive birds have incredible eyesight and focus it with intent and awareness as they seek their prey.

As you watch the eagle flying high, you see his magnificence. This enables you to recognize your own ascended glory.

Guidance

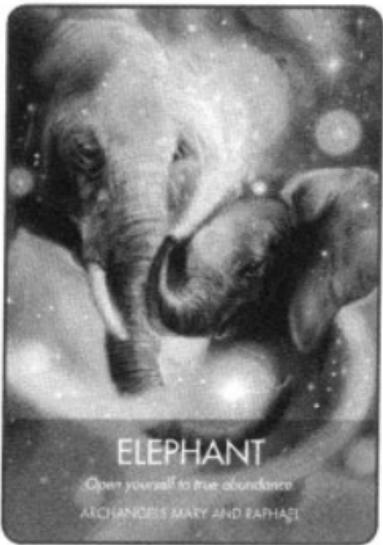

This is the card of the visionary who focuses with clarity and awareness on the objective. You are advised to be very clear about what you want to achieve or manifest. View it from the most enlightened perspective, so that your intention is for the supreme good. Be watchful and aware of everything that is happening.

Eagle

Remain motivated so that when you are ready for action you will move fearlessly and tenaciously. Treat challenges and seeming setbacks as opportunities to raise your game.

Constantly remain calm, centred and serene no matter what you are presented with. When you do this you will always stand in your power. People will see your majesty and will respect and honour you and your vision. Be aware of your own divine splendour.

ELEPHANT

Open yourself to true abundance.

ARCHANGELS MARY AND RAPHAEL

About Elephants

Elephants originate from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius. These wise, intelligent creatures hold in their energy fields a fifth-dimensional blueprint for family life within a perfect matriarchal society. Mothers are revered and they recognize that play keeps the frequency high. They practise the divine feminine qualities of caring, devotion and joyous innocent fun.

Bull elephants are kept away from the centre of the family.

These very psychic pachyderms are great telepathic communicators. Archangel Raphael directs healing through them. They link into Jupiter and its ascended aspect, Jumbay, the planet of enlightenment and cosmic abundance, to access the consciousness of prosperity, love and happiness, which they spread.

For centuries Archangel Sandalphon has worked with elephants as they heal the ley lines. Now they are linking in to their home star and, with Sandalphon, are building the new spiritual communication system for the approaching Golden Age.

Guidance

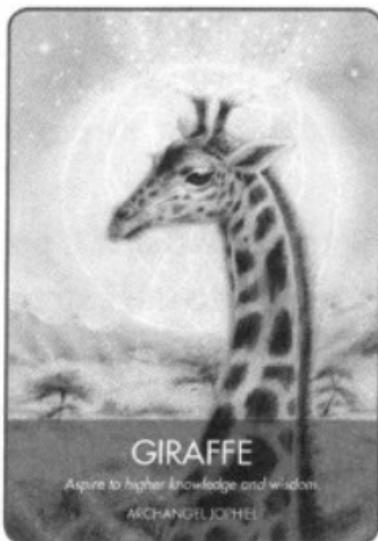

The Elephant card reminds you to keep your frequency high by having more fun, playing and being joyful. Whether you are male or female, practise divine feminine qualities within every area of your life to ensure you have a strong and stable foundation for your spiritual life.

Sit quietly and breathe into your third eye, tuning in to the elephant kingdom and Archangel Raphael, the awesome emerald Angel of Healing and Abundance. Then link into Jupiter and its ascended aspect, Jumbay, to call in perfect health and cosmic abundance to bathe your consciousness. Feel this energy permeate your cells and know the universe supports your divine perfection and heart's desire.

Then send out a stream of light to help build the crystalline web of light around our planet.

GIRAFFE

Aspire to higher knowledge and wisdom.

ARCHANGEL JOPHIEL

GIRAFFE

Aspire to higher knowledge and wisdom.

ARCHANGEL JOPHIEL

About Giraffes

The regal and elegant fifth-dimensional giraffes descend to Earth from Orion, the constellation of wisdom, carrying high-frequency light. Their crown chakras are open and this enables them to reach energetically into the galaxies to access knowledge and wisdom, and download it into their energy fields. They stay connected with their home, Orion, through a Ray of Truth and they then spread this light through the ley lines of Earth.

Giraffes demonstrate that it is possible to look beyond the ordinary into the extraordinary. They remind us to view life from a higher perspective. At the same time, they are experiencing and learning about balance and co-ordination.

They are very tuned in to nature and love the natural world. While their soul mission is idealistic and noble, their service mission quite simply is to trim tall trees to allow new growth.

Guidance

When you receive this card of higher wisdom, it suggests that you look beyond the limitations of your current circumstances and situations. Continue to fulfil your daily commitments and responsibilities diligently, while you explore your life from a higher perspective. You may then see things very differently. Internal change inevitably follows, and this is automatically reflected in your world.

You are also asked to tune in to your home planet in sleep or meditation and to connect to a Ray of Truth, so that you can understand the true wisdom of your soul.

Giraffe wisdom reminds you to act graciously with dignity, serenity and balance at all times and this will enable you to fulfil your dreams and your destiny.

Stand in your power as a point of light.

GOAT

Act from your innate wisdom.

ARCHANGEL PURLIMIEK AND PAN, GOD OF NATURE

About Goats

Goats, who originate from Orion, the ascended constellation of enlightenment, are highly intelligent animals. They are often misunderstood, though when they feel appreciated they are generous, loyal and nurturing. They love to be free to wander, spreading golden light and wisdom wherever they go. They balance this desire for space and independence by enjoying the companionship of the herd.

These special animals all have a great sense of balance. They love to clamber in the mountains and stand on rocks and peaks, gazing at the world and seeing all from a higher perspective. When you see a goat standing on a pinnacle, it may be linking into Orion for inspiration, for their soul mission is to lighten the vibration of our planet.

Their service work is to clear unwanted vegetation and rubbish.

Guidance

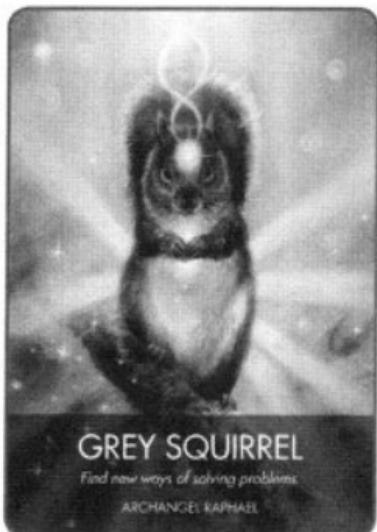

When you choose this card, your guidance is to be free and independent within the nurture of a loving, caring family or community. If you feel misunderstood, remember that you carry in your aura light and wisdom that are not always recognized.

Do any menial tasks that come your way graciously for this is part of life on Earth.

You are invited to look at the circumstances of your life and challenging situations from a higher-perspective. This will bring you much peace and enable your innate qualities of love, loyalty and caring to develop. When you can do this, your essential wisdom will shine through. You will be acknowledged by those around you.

Recognize who you are and many will be drawn to your energy.

GREY SQUIRREL

Find new ways of solving problems.

ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL

GREY SQUIRREL

Find new ways of solving problems.

ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL

About Grey Squirrels

These very inquisitive animals originate from Sirius and are not connected to red squirrels. They are extremely clever puzzle-solvers. They show great ingenuity and determination as they learn how to crack physical problems. They are doing this in order to expand their abilities and their left brain. They are showing and teaching humans that there are solutions if we try hard enough.

Grey squirrels bring from Sirius knowledge about sacred geometry as well as spiritual technology for the future, and they pass it to us when we are ready. Their presence can also trigger us to find answers to our problems.

In common with all types of squirrel, the grey ones are demonstrating how to use their kundalini (vital energy force) to bound across incredible distances. They can almost fly, and this urges us to expand the boundaries of our expectations.

Guidance

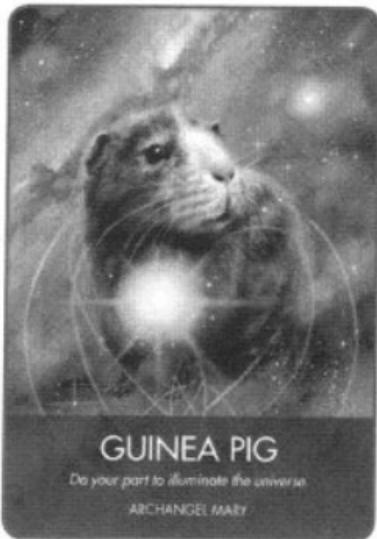

The Grey Squirrel wisdom of this card invites you to look at your life challenges in a new way. It is suggesting that there is a solution to all your problems if you look at them from a different angle. You are advised that you will also need to put effort into finding this resolution, so be ingenious, explore the possibilities and think things through carefully. Persevere. You will inevitably receive a reward, which may be financial, the good feeling of success or the resolution of a former challenge.

You are also asked to expand your lower limitations. It is time to fly. Have fun, be curious and enjoy the new potential that you are allowing to flow into your life. Find a new way to express your life force and vitality in the options that are becoming available to you.

GUINEA PIG

Do your part to illuminate the universe.

ARCHANGEL MARY

GUINEA PIG

Do your part to illuminate the universe.

ARCHANGEL MARY

About Guinea Pigs

These gentle little creatures are the only animals to incarnate from Venus, the planet of love. They have undertaken a huge mission on Earth to open and heal hearts, and they can do so because they are small and vulnerable so people accept them. When you hold or think about a guinea pig, it automatically connects you directly to the Cosmic Heart, so that you receive a download of agape (pure, unconditional love). This especially heals those who have hurt or abused hearts. This is so important at this time when we are preparing for the new Golden Age.

The energy of the guinea pig activates your connection through Venus to all the stars in the cosmos. Then the links are all illuminated with beautiful pink love. Through these animals, you can help to bring this wonderful universe together with love.

Guinea pigs are unique and highly evolved creatures whose soul mission is to give and receive love.

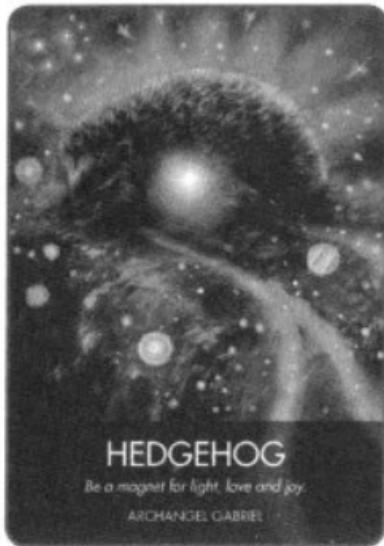

Guidance

This is the card of love. Just reading it starts to connect you energetically to the guinea pigs and through them to the Cosmic Heart. Be open to receiving a download of agape.

Remember that when love flows from your heart, it ignites the hearts of all around you.

Then, for a brief and glorious moment, you activate and light up the stellar links throughout creation with bright pink love. In this way you do your part to illuminate the universe. In response, the cosmos floods you with love and all manner of abundance. Just relax and trust, knowing that love is coming to you.

HEDGEHOG

Be a magnet for light, love and joy.

ARCHANGEL GABRIEL

HEDGEHOG

Be a magnet for light, love and joy.

ARCHANGEL GABRIEL

About Hedgehogs

Hedgehogs originate from Orion, the plane of wisdom and enlightenment. Despite their prickles, they radiate harmlessness so that humans feel safe with them. They make people laugh and feel happy. This allows them to open up to universal information in a way that lets them absorb wisdom.

These little creatures work with the beautiful Archangel Gabriel. They radiate his pure white light and blaze a trail of it wherever they travel. Within it are held the keys and codes of happiness, peace, clarity and other ascension qualities.

The Angels of Orion sing over hedgehogs and the angel sonics purify the area around them. This helps you to heal your past and light up your future.

Their service is to consume unwanted grubs.

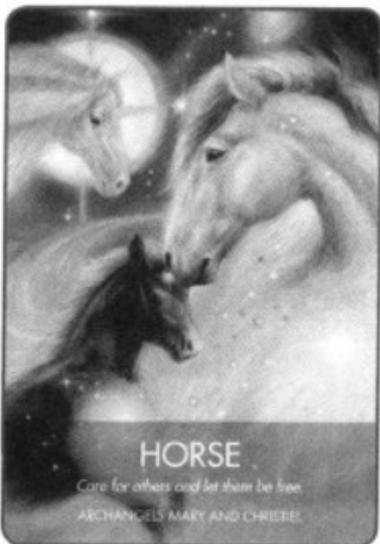

Guidance

This card is a reminder to laugh at your troubles and take them lightly. Invoke Archangel Gabriel and centre yourself in his pure white light, so that you absorb the keys and codes of the ascension qualities he carries. Then open yourself to the Angels of Orion, who come to you when you connect with the hedgehogs. Their sonics, even though you may not be able to hear them, will enable you to rise above your past and create a happy, joyous and love-filled future.

Hedgehog

Remember that you, too, can profoundly affect those around you. When you fill your aura with white light, it touches others and enables them to laugh and see higher possibilities. You all become harmless. You are invited to take yourself and your loved ones into a relaxed, peaceful world full of fun and laughter.

HORSE

Care for others and let them be free.

ARCHANGELS MARY AND CHRISTIEL

About Horses

Horses incarnate from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius, and these elegant, refined and magnificent creatures are all fifth-dimensional. Their soul contract is to serve humanity, while in return we agree to look after them, honour them and let them be free. These beautiful animals have huge heart centres and there has always been a strong bond of love between them and humans. They are great healers and have a special closeness with children. They are linked with Angel Mary who pours her divine healing light through them.

Recently, when enough people raised their frequency, Archangel Christiel entered this universe through his cross-shaped stargate in Lyra, and poured divine feminine light through the Moon into the causal chakras of all. It affected everyone, but particularly the sensitive, refined, high-frequency horses, and it reactivated their higher mission which is to bring Earth into divine perfect balance.

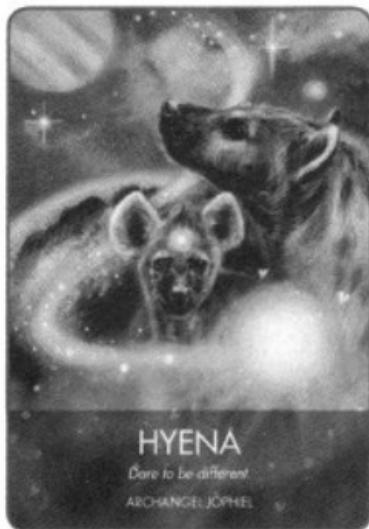

Guidance

This card calls you to expand your heart centre and focus on your noble qualities and aspirations. You are reminded that in order to honour others and let them be free, you must first respect yourself and set yourself free. So tune in to the great universal Angel Mary and let her wonderful healing, divine feminine light bathe you and dissolve the old. Then take decisions that chime with you and light you up.

Visualize the Full Moon or look at it if you can. Be aware of Archangel Christiel's shimmering, milky white light extending to your third eye and a magnificent pure white unicorn walking along the light to touch you. This will start to activate your own personal great soul qualities. Watch a higher path unfold.

HYENA

Dare to be different.

ARCHANGEL JOPHIEL

HYENA

Dare to be different.

ARCHANGEL JOPHIEL

About Hyenas

Hyenas are very intelligent and most unusual animals. They originate from Uranus and step into Earth through Sirius. All creatures from Uranus are harbingers of change, and often behave in ways that challenge the norm and bring about social transformation. Hyenas are uniquely experimenting with the variant of long front legs and short back ones. Unusually, females are the leaders and heavier than males. Archangel Jophiel works with these animals to keep their connection to Uranus clear.

These sociable and disciplined animals are learning and teaching about love, family and community within a tight social structure. They express their intentions with great clarity.

Their soul mission is to accept that they are different. They are also learning to understand and balance their opposing qualities, like cowardice with boldness and timidity with ferocity.

Their service mission is to clear up all leftovers so that our planet is kept clean, physically and energetically.

Guidance

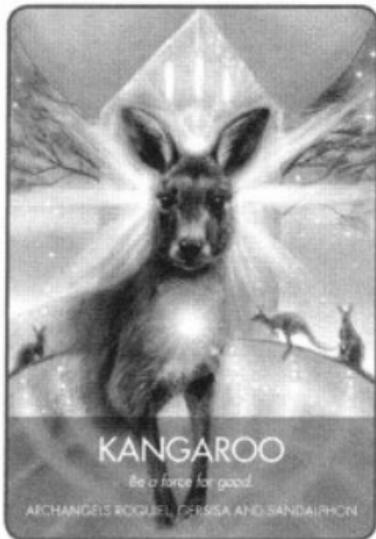

Hyena wisdom reminds you to accept your own special qualities. We are all different and you are called on to rejoice in your uniqueness. Be ready to bring about change in the dynamics of your family or community, or in a work situation. Decide what is for your highest good, knowing that when something is right for you the universe ensures it is in everyone else's best interests, too. Keep yourself in equilibrium. Balance any reticence with a tendency to be forthright. Then listen to your inner guidance and act on it.

Remember that self-discipline is the basis for ascension and mastery. Be yourself at all times. When you dare to be all you truly can be, people will admire and respect you.

KANGAROO

Act as a peaceful warrior.

ARCHANGELS ROQUIEL, GERSISA
AND SANDALPHON

About Kangaroos

These unique animals incarnated from Nigellay, the ascended aspect of Mars, at the same time as the Aborigines, to ground the energy and wisdom of the Golden Civilization of Lemuria. They are tuning in to the etheric libraries within

Kangaroo

Lemurian crystals to access information to help us move into the new Golden Age.

Kangaroos love this planet and all of nature, and they use their kundalini (vital energy force) to bound around so that the fragile soil structure of Australia is not damaged. As healers, they can draw light from the Cosmic Heart to heal the ley lines wherever they go. They are connected to the great Archangels Roquiel, Gersisa and Sandalphon, who work within the centre of Earth.

Kangaroos are peaceful warriors. Their qualities include courage, leadership and power, and balanced with this, feminine virtues of love, tenderness and wisdom. They birth incredibly tiny Joeys and must care for their vulnerable offspring. This develops their instinct to protect those weaker than themselves.

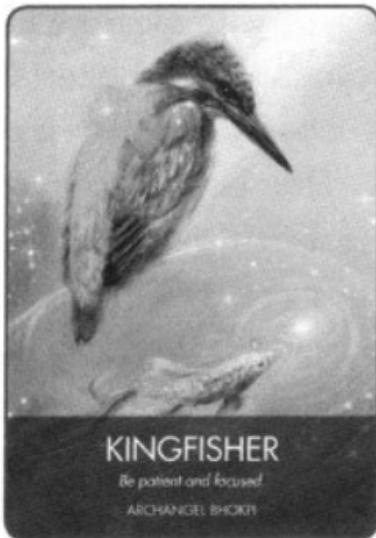

Guidance

This is the card of wise, balanced, compassionate leadership. Be a peaceful warrior, an upholder of justice and equality. Particularly help those who are vulnerable. Treat our beautiful planet with respect and love. Then nature will support you.

At the same time, you are invited to tune in to the information and knowledge held within the Lemurian crystals. You may not be consciously aware that you are receiving light when you think about or hold one of these sacred crystals. Nevertheless, a download of keys and codes for the new Golden Age is being transmitted to you, and will enable you to ease your journey through life. Be open to receiving it.

KINGFISHER

Be patient and focused.

— ARCHANGEL BHOKPI —

KINGFISHER

Be patient and focused.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

About Kingfishers

These beautiful birds are third-dimensional and come from Sirius. They live in and by water, which keeps their energy pure. Water contains the love energy of the universe and kingfishers carry this agape (pure, unconditional love) in their aura and spread it wherever they fly.

When you gasp with pleasure as a kingfisher flashes past you, your sudden elevation in consciousness opens doors of opportunity in the universe. This bird is demonstrating the importance of maintaining clear and positive thoughts and being ready for any break or chance that comes your way.

Kingfishers teach us about patience. While they wait serenely to catch a fish they are holding their focus on one appearing. By their positive intent they attract the fish, and as soon as their goal is in sight they act immediately.

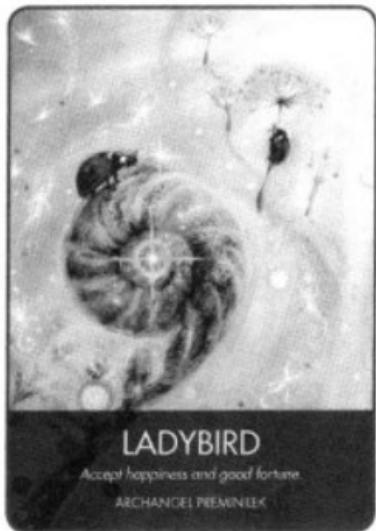

Guidance

This card is reminding you it is time to be clear about your heart's desire. Set your vision positively and ask that it comes to you in a way that brings a positive outcome for everyone. Once you have decided what you wish to bring into your life, be prepared to be calm and patient while you focus on it intently. Watch out for any signs from the universe or intuitions that may direct you to a course of action, but do not let your thoughts waver. Remember that they are inevitably drawing your desire to you. As soon as it is within grasp, take immediate action. This is a moment for speed and energy.

The universe is about to offer you an opportunity, so stay positive and grounded. Something good is coming your way.

LADYBIRD

Accept happiness and good fortune.

ARCHANGEL PREMINILEK

LADYBIRD

Accept happiness and good fortune.

ARCHANGEL PREMINILEK

About Ladybirds

These bright little insects from Orion carry wisdom and joy in their energy fields. They spread angelic qualities of peace, harmony, co-operation, joy, love and higher understanding wherever they go. People sense this and love them for it.

If you feel delighted when you see a ladybird, your energy shifts and this opens you to experience joy, blessings and good fortune from the universe.

While the service mission of ladybirds on Earth is to eat aphids that damage crops, their soul mission is to assist all plants. They work with the fairies and sylphs, who are air elementals, to blow away from fauna and flora any lower energy that is holding back their development and growth. They also communicate with those insects who are damaging plants and try to persuade them to move away.

If you are graced by the presence of a ladybird, you are very blessed.

Guidance

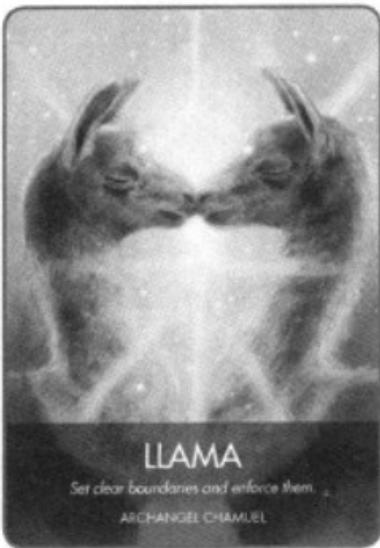

If you choose this card it signals that you are about to receive a blessing from the universe. An angel may touch you; happiness awaits you; you are illuminated with new understandings or good fortune is coming your way. Give thanks for all that you have received already, so that you are energetically prepared for the new before the gift flies away.

Ladybird energy invites you to spread angelic qualities today. This will make a difference to those you touch, and you may be surprised how people and animals will appreciate it.

You are also asked to communicate graciously to all the people you meet or write to, in a way that will nourish and support them.

LLAMA

Set clear boundaries and enforce them.

ARCHANGEL CHAMUEL

LLAMA

Set clear boundaries and enforce them.

ARCHANGEL CHAMUEL

About Llamas

Llamas originate from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius, and they incarnated into South America, which is closely connected to Venus, the planet of love. They help to keep open the hearts of those around them by bathing them in Christ light.

Llamas are gentle, intelligent creatures offer their wool and their strength in service. They respond generously and loyally to fairness and love, but they know their own limits and set clear boundaries, refusing to be overburdened.

They are sociable animals who love to be with other llamas and this helps them maintain a fifth-dimensional frequency. They bond with and protect any animal they are asked to look after. Like many heart healers they are gentle, patient and understanding with those who are in need or sick, raising their vibration and giving them healing.

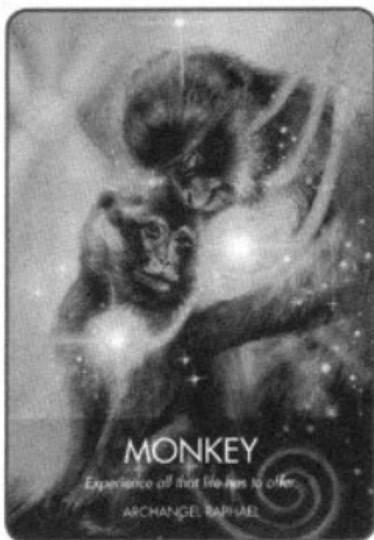

Guidance

This is a card of pure love. It suggests your heart is warm and open, so you may let others impose on your good nature or drain you. Decide what is acceptable for you, then it is important to set clear boundaries. As we are all energetically entwined it may be enough for you to define these boundaries mentally. However, your guidance is to be prepared to enforce them tactfully if necessary. Then you will find it easier to follow your heart and be loyal, caring and patient with your loved ones and those in need.

Remember to find time to see positive friends and do things that make you feel relaxed and happy, as this will give you energy and keep your frequency high. It will benefit you to tune in to the Cosmic Heart for love and support.

MONKEY

Experience all that life has to offer.

ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL

MONKEY

Experience all that life has to offer.

ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL

About Monkeys

All types of monkeys originate from the tenth-dimensional universe of Shekinah and step down through the Pleiades. Their chatter calls in angel sonics that heal the creatures around them and help trees to grow. Monkeys also use these sonics to share news and information from the angels and elementals with animals, birds, trees and humans.

As heart-centred beings, monkeys incarnate to experience with the right brain and follow their instincts. They are learning about qualities such as unconditional love, loyalty, togetherness and trust. Their focus is on family life, enjoyment, developing the senses, food and connecting with the trees. They are not here to develop human intellectual capacity or logical ability, but are extremely evolved spiritually and truly experience Oneness.

Guidance

Focus on developing your right brain and your heart, as this is the route to ascension and oneness.

Take time out to relax, have fun and just be. Enjoy your senses. Love your food, smell the flowers, see beauty everywhere, touch your loved ones and listen with loving expectation. Attune to the wonder of nature. Bring your family or community together. In this way, you really connect with and understand Oneness.

It is important to be aware of your voice when you talk or sing. When it is warm and harmonious the angels can use it to create sonics that purify you and light you up. You will radiate a pool of healing around you and this not only helps others but attracts good into your life.

Be carefree and joyous.

OWL

Listen to the messages of the angels.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

About Owls

Owls are fifth-dimensional birds from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius. They carry the wisdom of their home star in their energy fields. They are known as wise owls because their energy enlightens people and also because they have big, round eyes.

Their soul mission is to hold the blueprint of the fifth-dimensional vision for our planet as we move towards the new Golden Age. They try to impress this onto people and animals, and inspire them to raise their frequency.

Owls serve as teachers. At night they gather together elementals in their area and impart knowledge and wisdom to them to help them ascend. They are very protective of them. They also clear lower energies from their particular territory and are helped in this by cats.

Some species of owl hoot or screech. Others growl, chirp, whistle or make a different sound. On one level this is to communicate with their own kind; on another the vibration within these sounds brings through messages and wise guidance from the angels.

Guidance

This is the card of the wise teacher and you are being advised to use your knowledge carefully. You are not just imparting information. When you communicate, the energy in your aura is raising the frequency of those you speak to and helping to enlighten them. This is a sacred mission.

Start to notice how people are drawn to you and choose your words judiciously because you have more impact than you realize.

Be aware that you are clearing and cleansing the energy around you. This means that you need to take extra care of yourself and rest more. Give yourself time to absorb the messages of the angels.

PANDA

Stay balanced and in your essence.

ARCHANGELS MARY, JOPHIEL AND SANDALPHON

PANDA

Stay balanced and in your essence.

ARCHANGELS MARY, JOPHIEL AND SANDALPHON

About Pandas

These solitary, peaceful animals are heart healers who come from the Pleiades. Their hearts radiate truth, innocence and purity and they embody the symbol of the blue rose. This allows pure Source healing to be stepped down into their energy fields.

Archangel Jophiel, the Angel of Wisdom, brings his wisdom down through pandas. They then pass it through Archangel Sandalphon to Lady Gaia in the centre of the Earth.

Pandas are black and white to indicate that they are in balance and can help people see from an enlightened perspective.

If provoked, they demonstrate formidable masculine power. They also show incredible maternal instinct towards their cubs who, when very young, are extremely tiny, totally helpless, pink, hairless and blind. This vulnerability was decided at a higher level to test the mothering qualities of the female panda.

Guidance

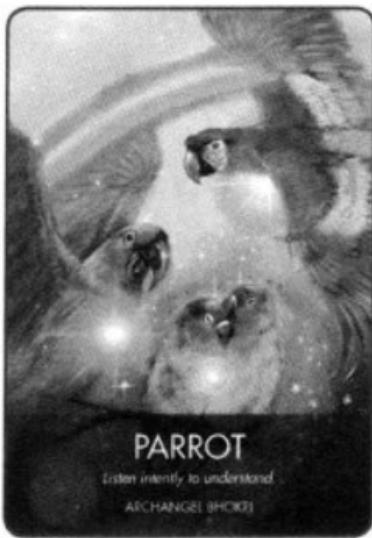

Keep your heart pure and light. When you think of a panda, the Angel Mary connects you directly to the Cosmic Heart to receive healing and love. In addition, when you offer to be a bridge between the Cosmic Heart and the centre of the Earth, Archangel Sandalphon will link in to enable you to bring a vast download of love through you. This is special service and raises your frequency considerably.

The Panda card asks you to stay in balance. Notice how you are tested to develop your masculine and feminine energies, then apply yourself to the lessons. This will enable you to heal yourself and others.

When you attune to the panda, a blue Pleiadean healing rose is placed in your energy fields.

PARROT

Listen intently to understand.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

PARROT

Listen intently to understand.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

About Parrots

The whole parrot family – parrots, budgerigars, cockatoos, parakeet, lovebirds and macaws – is fifth-dimensional. They come from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius. Their soul mission is to carry and radiate the light and lessons of the Archangels through their glorious colours.

Wherever they fly, they leave a trail of beautiful angel energy.

While parrots are in a physical body, they are using the opportunity to develop their skills.* They can utilize tools to demonstrate to us that birds are clever. Their most remarkable gift is the capacity for mimicry. They can copy human voices, animals and other sounds, a talent they have cultivated by listening intently.

Parrots remind you to listen with your heart and your ears. They are teaching humans to heed keenly all that is happening around them.

Guidance

When you receive this card, you are being asked to listen with your heart and soul in order to understand what people are really saying. Use all your senses to note what they are truly imparting and what is going on inside them. You may discover more than you thought possible.

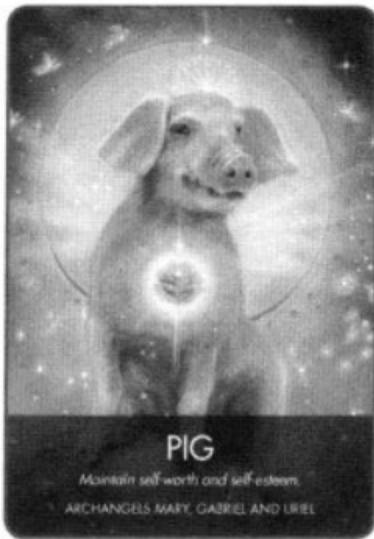

You are also being reminded that the Archangels work through colour. When you wear a bright colour or choose one for your home or workplace, the angels can radiate their light and their lessons through the vibration.

You are on Earth to learn everything you can while in a physical body, so take every opportunity that appears and hone your gifts and demonstrate them whenever you can.

PIG

Maintain self-worth and self-esteem.

ARCHANGELS MARY, GABRIEL AND URIEL

PIG

Maintain self-worth and self-esteem.

ARCHANGELS MARY, GABRIEL AND URIEL

About Pigs

These wonderful healers come from the Pleiades with a mission to serve by raising the frequency of the land and all creatures. They carry the blue Pleiadean rose symbolizing heart healing, and love in their auras. While their soul mission is to keep the frequency of the land, people and animals around them high, pure and clear, their service mission is to eat unwanted food and vegetation. In earlier times it was considered a privilege to share your home with this clean, evolved and clever animal.

The Healing Angels of the Pleiades and many Archangels are working with the pigs to uphold their sense of self-worth and self-esteem, so that they can continue to serve at the highest possible level.

Guidance

This card tells you it is time to remember how special you are. Your soul had to be at least seventh-dimensional to be allowed to incarnate on Earth and, like most beings, when you stepped down into a body, much of your knowledge and wisdom was lost to you. Your guidance is to meditate for a few minutes each day on the gifts, talents and wisdom held in your soul. Then ask for them to be made available to you for your highest good.

Visualize the blue rose in your heart and let the healing from the Pleiades pour through you, raising the frequency of your surroundings and touching people with love. This will help you to maintain a sense of self-worth and your true value.

You are reminded that many angels are surrounding you and some of the magnificent Archangels are working with you.

RABBIT

Recognize your significance.

ARCHANGEL GABRIEL

About Rabbits

Pure, warm-hearted rabbits originate from Orion. They heal hearts with wisdom as well as love.

Every sentient being emits sounds that together create the Song of the Earth. Currently Earth is discordant. However, Lady Gaia sings her true tune and the rabbits hear this. Part of the rabbits' soul mission is to relay these notes through their energy fields in order to bring everything into harmonic alignment. Their aim is to enable us all to ascend graciously.

Rabbits have a huge and important soul mission. They spread purity, clarity and joy wherever they go and, because they carry sacred geometric wisdom in their auras, the angels sing harmonics over them. As a result, through these furry little creatures, angel sonics spread over the land where they live.

Archangel Sandalphon understands the Music of the Spheres, which is the harmonics of creation. Through the rabbits he and Archangel Gabriel attune the Song of the Earth with the Music of the Spheres to hold in place the seventh-dimensional blueprint for Earth.

Guidance

When you bring yourself into alignment you emit a melodious tune. The wisdom of the rabbits suggests you watch your thoughts and actions. Make sure they are pure, light and loving. Speak, hum or sing with the intention of being in harmony with the Song of the Earth. Know your contribution is helping the entire universe to align in divine right order.

Unicorns love pure, innocent beings and, if you hold or think about a rabbit, a glorious unicorn will shower light and blessings over you.

You may feel that your efforts are insignificant in the vastness of the universe, but they are noted and appreciated by the Illumined Ones.

RAT

Be true to yourself and the universe will reward you.

ARCHANGELS GABRIEL AND ZADKIEL

About Rats

Rats are highly evolved and intelligent creatures with big hearts, and they originate on Neptune. They offered to undertake a sacred mission on Earth – to consume sewage and garbage here as well as the psychic rubbish around it. This worked well until humans created so much waste and negativity that rats could no longer transmute it all. Although more rodents arrived to help, they were all in overload and developed disease. Humans started to persecute them. Now rats live in fear so they can no longer transform and purify our debris into love.

Recently new elementals have arrived from another universe to help consume and clear waste on land and in the water. But it's time for humans to take responsibility for the rubbish we leave, both physical and emotional.

Well-cared-for pet rats are very clever and much loved. They are holding the true vision of rats' noble mission.

Guidance

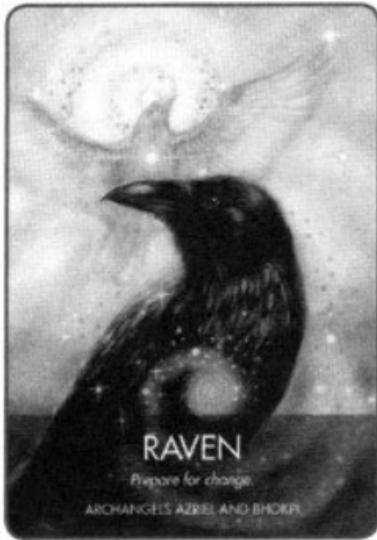

The Rat card reminds you that when you are acting with the best and noblest intentions you may still be misunderstood. In extreme cases you may even be persecuted. There will always be those who want to put out the light of others.

Archangel Animal Oracle Cards

Your guidance is to let no one diminish you. Instead, remain true to your pure purpose and hold your vision like a bright flame.

Do your best at all times and only take on that which you can handle. Check internally that you are taking responsibility for your actions, then relax and know that your life mission will eventually be recognized and you will receive your just reward.

RAVEN

Prepare for change.

ARCHANGELS AZRIEL AND BHOKPI

About Ravens

The raven comes from Sirius and brings a special magic. Crows, rooks, magpies, drongos and ravens are all known as the tricksters of the bird kingdom. They create change by overcoming obstacles and instigate transitions in animals and humans.

Their soul mission is to nudge people and animals towards enlightenment. If you see a single one of these birds, it is prompting you to watch out for unexpected change or it may be telling you to raise your consciousness before you draw something unwanted to you. They remind you to set pure intentions, so that you attract good things.

The service mission of ravens is to clear up carrion. In doing so they keep things clean and teach us that everything can be used.

Ravens work with Archangel Azriel, the Angel of Birth and Death, who sends one of these birds to any animal ready to give birth. Its arrival is a reminder to the mother that it is time to prepare for the new. When one waits by a dying animal, it is energetically helping it to pass over.

Guidance

When you receive this card, your guidance is to watch your thoughts. Make sure that they are positive and wholesome. Examine your intentions and make clear ones for everyone's good, including your own. A pure vision sets your journey to enlightenment and ascension.

The raven suggests that you have skills and talents that will enable you to bypass obstacles in a clever and different way.

It also warns you to be prepared for sudden change or a transition into something unexpected and new. You have all the support and help you need for the transition ahead.

RHINOCEROS

Be strong and courageous.

ARCHANGELS SANDALPHON AND ROQUIEL

About Rhinoceroses

These massive creatures originate from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius. Their fortitude and their love of Earth have enabled them to ascend into the fifth dimension.

Their soul mission is to act as bridges between Source and Earth. They help people and animals to plug their Earth Star chakras into Lady Gaia to be charged with her light. They are representatives of the Golden Age of Mu and hold in trust for us the information, knowledge and wisdom of that era. It is also contained in a healing blue-aquamarine flame held within the centres of Earth, Orion, Sirius, the Pleiades and Neptune. The rhinos are helping Earth to ascend by holding the geometric structure that connects the ascension planets.

Their service work is to prune trees or act as grass mowers.

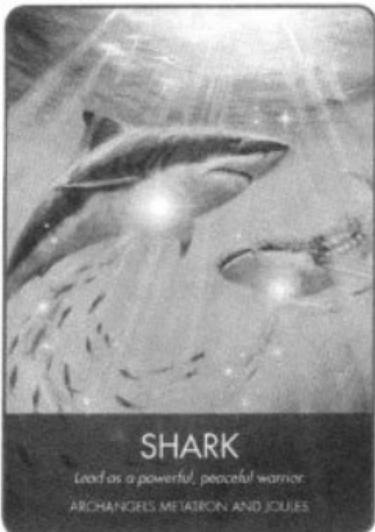

Guidance

This card reminds you that you do a great deal of service work, especially healing, without knowing you do so. You are asked to visualize the blue-aquamarine flame of Michael and Mary, and imagine yourself standing within it. This will activate knowledge and wisdom that you are ready to bring forward from the Golden Age of Mu. Recognize that this is important and that the keys and codes from Mu will help Earth and those around you to ascend.

Your guidance is to move steadily on your path. Know that you are healing and connecting places and people wherever you go. People may not understand you but you are developing fortitude, strength and determination. These qualities will ultimately help you on your ascension journey.

SHARK

Lead as a powerful, peaceful warrior.

ARCHANGELS METATRON AND JOULES

SHARK

Lead as a powerful peaceful warrior.

ARCHANGELS METATRON AND JOULES

About Sharks

These formidable fish are fifth-dimensional, originating from Nigellay, the ascended aspect of Mars. Within the oceans they are spiritual leaders who demonstrate discipline, duty, honour and focus. They protect those who need it as they carry out their soul mission of keeping life in the waters in divine right order. They also form an integral part of the spiritual army that protects the knowledge held by the dolphins.

Sharks are very psychic. They have developed all their senses and use them to locate the tiniest vibration in the water. They also use their senses to fulfil their service mission, which is to scavenge and keep the oceans clear and clean.

By allowing their numbers to be decimated, the large sharks are drawing our attention to the importance of ecological balance.

Their higher diamond light codes have now been activated so that they can connect to their home planet and other parts of the universe.

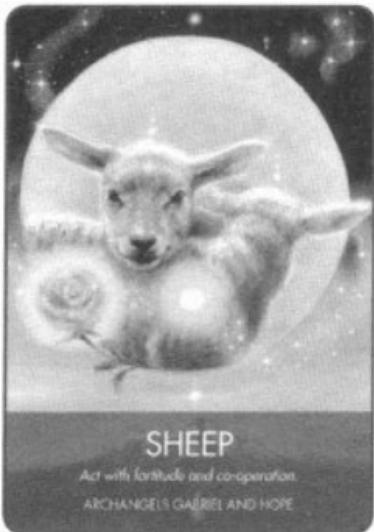

Guidance

This is the master card of the Peaceful Spiritual Warrior. You are called on to strengthen and discipline yourself, claim your power and act as a calm, wise influence for the highest good of all. To do this effectively, you'll need to develop all five senses to tune in to the needs of those around you.

Shark

Because you are strong, sensitive and important, you may have sacrificed yourself in some way for the common good. Your guidance is to examine your life and decide what brings you satisfaction. Bring more of these things into your life so that your wise leadership is founded on a feeling of personal contentment.

SHEEP

Act with fortitude and co-operation.

ARCHANGELS GABRIEL AND HOPE

About Sheep

Sheep, with their loving, innocent hearts, came from the Pleiades to offer wool and to share their milk and their joy. They enter through Archangel Gabriel's high-frequency portal of Mount Shasta. Like all creatures from this star cluster, they carry the symbol of the 33-petalled blue rose in their auras, so they and their products carry healing energy and Christ light.

Through sheep, Archangel Hope touches people with optimism and helps them to keep their spirits high, so that they can aspire to achieve their full potential. It is this noble service that enables these gentle animals to bear their current conditions on Earth with fortitude.

Sheep choose to live in flocks because they know that when they act together, they can do their service work of spreading healing to pastures and people more effectively. They work symbiotically for the highest good.

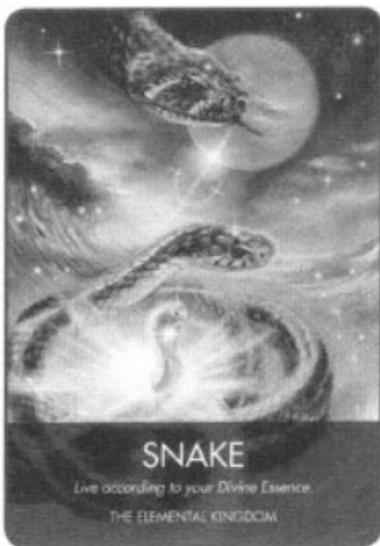

Guidance

Your guidance today is to co-operate with others. Realize that together you can accomplish greater things than if you work alone. Your aspirations can more easily be fulfilled if you act from the heart and the right brain. So open your heart today and listen to your inner wisdom. Visualize your goal being achieved with love, happiness and joy.

Whether it is acting in harmony with your family or friends, or working as a team with your colleagues, the outcome will be satisfying for you all. Be kind, calm and centred.

It is through sacrificing self and personal ambition that everyone will win and a flame of hope will ignite within you.

SNAKE

Live according to your Divine Essence.

THE ELEMENTAL KINGDOM

About Snakes

Snakes come from many universes, bringing their light and wisdom with them. They step down to Earth through Neptune, where they collect the keys and codes from Atlantis and Lemuria. When they become physical they crawl on the ground and spread this information so that anyone can access it. They are then closely connected to Hollow Earth, and energetically bring up ancient knowledge and the records of the history of the planet.

Snakes are messengers who bring warnings or remind you to look beyond the outer appearance of something or someone around you. Often they bear the good news that change or transformation is on its way. They may herald an expansion of consciousness, which will inevitably revolutionize your life.

All reptiles still carry the original divine blueprint or essence they received when they were created. This offers them power and purity, and is why snake magic offers a powerful energetic protection if you call on it sincerely.

Guidance

You are asked to be very aware today because the Snake card is bringing you a message that something is about to happen. Are you ready to burst out of your skin and expand your life? Is it time to plan a holiday or move house? Is an opportunity going to be presented to you?

On the other hand, this card may be offering a warning. Can you trust the people around you? Look beyond the surface and listen to your gut instinct. Remember to call on snake magic if you feel you need protection, and know that this will keep you safe. Your guidance is to be ready for any eventuality.

Tune in to the wisdom of the universe that is available to you now.

SWAN

Demonstrate grace and majesty.

ARCHANGEL BHOKPI

About Swans

These beautiful, graceful birds come from Lakumay, the ascended aspect of Sirius. They carry sacred geometric symbols of peace, calm and elegance in their auras, which they spread into the waters and the land. Their tranquillity as they float across the water impacts on people's energy fields and creates a soothing effect. White swans teach lessons of purity, serenity and beauty, while black ones also spread the wisdom of the divine feminine.

Their regal qualities ensure that they are treated with respect. Like all majestic creatures they believe in themselves, so they impart a subliminal message that they will brook no interference from others as they can and will defend themselves. Indeed, if angered, swans can be ferocious and formidable.

Guidance

Your guidance from this card is to develop your regal qualities. Believe in yourself. Know you are special and beautiful. Trust your inner self and be confident. Act with calm, peace and grace at all times. Even though your thoughts may be working overtime, maintain a relaxed and serene exterior and this will bring you to equilibrium.

Be charming and pleasant, and at the same time expect people to honour you and treat you with respect. If anyone oversteps the mark with you, make it perfectly clear that this is unacceptable and you are prepared to take action if necessary.

You will act as an energetic pool of peace and this will soothe and calm everyone around you. Your pure light will then facilitate good relationships and better decisions, as you are acting from wisdom and true power.

TIGER

Accept your magnificence.

ARCHANGEL RAPHAEL

About Tigers

Tigers come from Orion and carry much wisdom in their auras. They are powerful beings, spiritually as well as physically, and are extremely psychic. Their soul mission is to watch over and guard the planet from lower energies approaching us. Their roars not only alert other creatures to their boundaries but send a warning out into space. They raise the frequency in the area.

No two tigers have the same pattern of stripes, so each one is unique. They are unusual in the feline kingdom, for they are learning to enjoy water and even catch fish so that they can take this new understanding back to Orion.

Guidance

This card comes to remind you that you are a unique and magnificent person. So accept this.

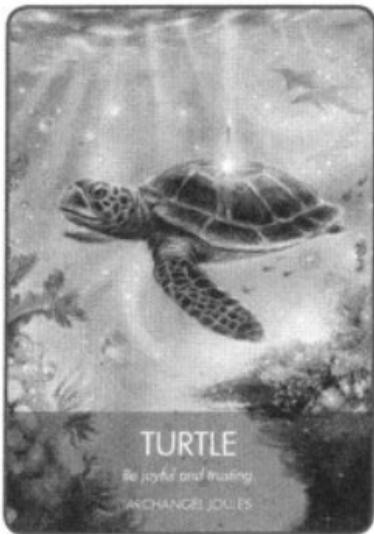

It asks you to tune psychically in to a situation or relationship that is troubling you. Trust your inner knowing to present you with the answers you are seeking. Then listen to your wisdom, as this will reveal to you how to handle the person or circumstance for the highest good of all.

Tiger energy tells you to be prepared to act decisively, with strength and power. However, you may not even need to take action because when you have a tiger in your energy field, other people sense it and respond with respect.

Tiger

The Tiger card also advises you to expand your horizons. Develop something new in your life which you can learn to enjoy.

TURTLE

Be joyful and trusting.

ARCHANGEL JOULES

About Turtles

These highly evolved beings step down to Earth from another universe through the ascended aspect of Jupiter, known as Jumbay, the plane of happiness and abundance. Turtles radiate these qualities in their energy fields. Like all reptiles they maintain their original divine blueprint from Source.

Their soul mission is to help raise and maintain the frequency of our oceans and facilitate prosperity consciousness and higher knowing in humanity. They trust the land to look after their eggs and the sea to nurture their young so that enough of their offspring will survive.

Their tough shell protects an incredibly sensitive inner. They form part of the dolphin's protective army by raising the frequency of the waters around them to create an impenetrable wall of light. Then lower entities cannot access the information turtles hold in trust.

Turtles draw our attention to the importance of keeping the waters clean and often sacrifice themselves while doing so.

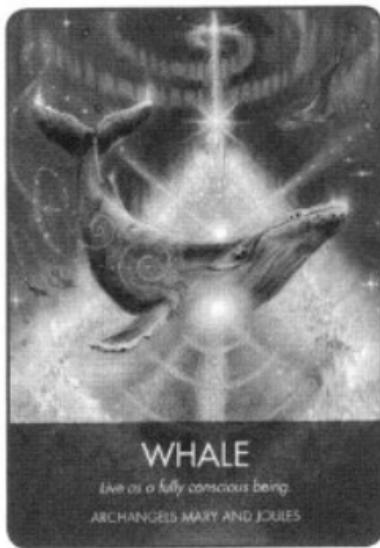

Guidance

Choosing this card suggests you may sometimes put your shell around you to protect your sensitive feelings. This also prevents the good from coming in. Your guidance is to let this wall down and place light around yourself instead.

Through the turtles tune in to Jumbay and focus on abundance consciousness. You can call in love, prosperity, happiness, joy and all manner of good things, but be sure to visualize others and the whole planet receiving this stream of bounty with you.

Trust that the universe loves you and that everything will work out for the highest good. The rich and generous universe is ready to bring you plenty, so value who you truly are. And if you wish to sacrifice yourself for the majority, do so consciously.

WHALE

Live as a fully conscious being.

ARCHANGELS MARY AND JOULES

WHALE

Live as a fully conscious being.

ARCHANGELS MARY AND JOULES

About Whales

These awesome evolved beings originate from the tenth-dimensional universe of Shekinah. They carry a level of love and joy that is currently beyond our comprehension. As they swim in the oceans Archangel Mary pours blessings down, while Archangel Joules sends blessings up to them from the portal of the Bermuda Triangle. Held in this shaft of pure love, they spread the light and messages of these Archangels, as well as the codes of higher enlightenment and hope they bring from Shekinah.

Their soul mission is to maintain the divine blueprint for our oceans and hold the vibration of our planet. They chose to fulfil it in the waters where the energy of the land cannot affect them.

Whales demonstrate conscious breathing and asked to give birth to live babies so that they could understand maternal love.

As part of their service mission they protect the dolphins and the sacred wisdom they hold.

Guidance

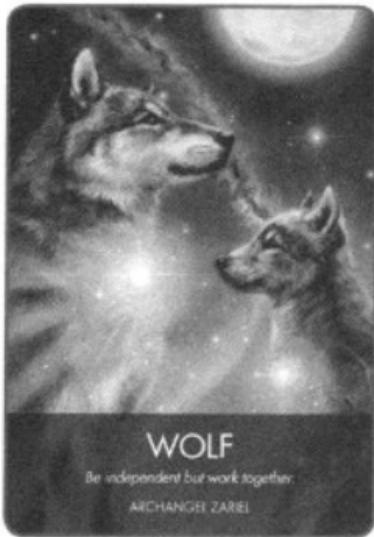

This is the card of mastery. One of the first steps is to be able to control your breathing. When you focus on your breath, you connect consciously to Source and your place of origin. Whale wisdom suggests you centre yourself through breathing or deepen your meditation practice.

Whale

When you think about or swim with whales, Angel Mary can also take you up to Source. Your heart will be touched by the ineffable light.

Rise above worldly matters and spread love, light, hope and inspiration to those around you. Ask that your fifth-dimensional blueprint be fully installed, and live it. No matter what is happening around you, be the best you can be.

Be independent but work together.

Be independent but work together.

ARCHANGEL ZARIEL

About Wolves

These regal canines originate from Sirius and have the mission of spreading the Gold Ray of Christ wherever they wander. They have formidable healing powers and are spiritual teachers in the animal kingdom. Individually they are extremely independent, but are learning that it is more effective to work as a pack. When a wolf gives his trust, he gives his loyalty and his heart. This applies to their own kind and to those humans in whom they have developed confidence.

Wolves are learning about family life, with its very strict hierarchy and discipline. Males and females are considered equal, which means the masculine and feminine energy within the pack is balanced. Every wolf has a role to play so that each one feels needed and important.

Guidance

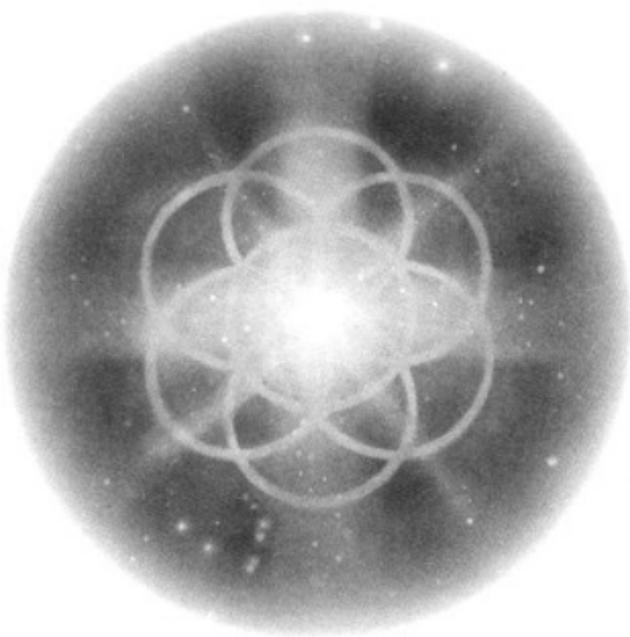

This is the card of the spiritual teacher. When you choose it you are reminded to be disciplined about your spiritual practice, as this is very important to your progress. Act nobly and honourably, whatever the circumstances, for many will look up to you.

You must learn to trust your inner guidance. Then decide who you have confidence in and give them your loyalty. You need to know who you can trust because you have wisdom and healing to impart. Look for like-minded others and gather them to you, as together you can fulfil your mission more effectively than if you work alone.

Whether you are aware of it or not, you can spread the unconditional love and light of the Gold Ray of Christ, which has a huge energetic impact on those around you.
